

Pig Drawing

"On a blank piece of paper, draw a pig. Don't look at your neighbor's pigs. Don't even glance."

Wait for them to complete their drawing. "This is what your drawing tells you"

Personality traits of the artist:

- Toward the top of the paper, you are a positive, optimistic person
- Toward the middle of the page (top to bottom), you are a realist
- Toward the bottom of the page, you are pessimistic and have a tendency to behave negatively.
- Facing left, you believe in tradition, are friendly, and remember dates, including birthdays.
- Facing forward (looking toward you) you are direct, enjoy playing devil's advocate, and neither fear nor avoid discussions.
- Facing right, you are innovative and active, but don't have a strong sense of family, nor do you remember dates.
- With many details, you are analytical, cautious, and distrustful.
- With few details, you are emotional and naive; you care little for details and are a risk taker.
- With four legs showing, you are secure, stubborn, and stick to your ideals.
- With less than four legs showing, you are insecure, or are living through a period of major change.
- The size of the pig's ears indicate how good a listener you are.
- The length of the pig's tail indicates the quality of the artist's sex life.
